

6516209056.txt

I support fully satellite radio and all of its contents. This is a breech of my constitutional rights to block any of my paid for information. Radio is full of nothing more than advertisements bs nearly constantly. I am very pleased with my on demand information and enjoyment. Please inform the NAB to find a new gripe. They are simply getting behind with the times and want someone to fight for a losing profession.